

December 7, 1982

Dear Gertrude and Edith:

It was a pleasure to talk with you on Monday afternoon. I was relieved to learn that the situation is well in hand and that the spirits of both "the patient" and "the doctor" are good. What a frightening accident!

Enclosed are two copies of three newspaper clippings and a program that I have been meaning to send to you:

1. "Is Your Name Gardner,?" THE WAYNE INDEPENDENT, November 18, 1982, p. 7
2. Carbondale Historical Society Annual Fall Dinner Program
3. "Waymart Couple Note 25th," THE CARBONDALE NEWS, December 1, 1982, p. 6
4. "Mr. and Mrs. Henry Curtis, Jr. Observe 25th Anniversary," THE WAYNE INDEPENDENT, November 30, 1982, p. 11

I have enclosed a couple of extra copies of the first one ("Is Your Name Gardner?"), thinking that perhaps you might want to send them to some Gardners who may not have seen the article in THE WAYNE INDEPENDENT on November 18, 1982.

If there is anything that I can do to help out either "the patient" or "the doctor," please let me know. I shall be happy to help.

Sincerely,

S. Robert Powell
